This is to wish you good luck with your production of the Secretary Bird and I shall hope to see and see me evening to see a great admirer of the modern theatre and with good reason since two of my plays, The Name of Northstead and Lloyd George King of Falter would never have reached London had it not been for critical productions but compare another. Mr. Mackintosh, was the early life of the Secretary Bird all that ever, it was but turned down by no less than 13 London Managers and then produced at Swinage by an actor called Anthony Page, who put a tape-recorder under the stage and with, as a result of that recording, it was produced in London and ran for nearly 4 years. I hope your audience will enjoy it
